Title: Innocent victim

well, I can't believe all the things I've begun to do friends say I let them down and messed around, I guess it's true they asked me what's on my mind, I don't know what to say only believing love can make me act this way well, you know that love can never break down 'cause it sneaked up on me whwn i was unaware

I am an innocent, try to understand
I am an innocent victim of a thing called love
I am an innocent, try to understand
I am an innocent victim of a thing called love

well, I used to be a level headed guy but now I can't think straight no matter how i try

I am an innocent, try to understand
I am an innocent victim of a thing called love
I am an innocent, try to understand
I am an innocent victim of a thing called love

I am an innocent, try to understand
I am an innocent victim of a thing called love
I am an innocent, try to understand
I am an innocent victim of a thing called love

I am an innocent, try to understand
I am an innocent victim of a thing called love
I am an innocent, try to understand
I am an innocent victim of a thing called love
