Title: Dead Men Don't Walk

[6.2]

Dead

[Chorus: Buck 65 & 6.2]

Dead men don't walk

They only decompose

When I count to three you close your eyes and keep
'em closed

Its nightmarish to think you might perish slowly fear it
Or pray to your chosen holy spirit

[Buck 65]

I'm an ugly sack of mostly water born to be informed

And the only one that knows me is Obi Wan Kenobi

My new mission as a musician

Is the absorption of filtered truths (6.2: Truths)

So as you listen to this and consider why I'm fussing over nothing

Don't think for a moment that it's easy to please me

We write 'em desperate to keep certain items separate

The foolish pursuit of novelty boggles me

I'll share irrefutable tested results

With beautiful breasted adults

That offer feedback and need fact to figure

That's why I'm listening to Miss Helena Christiansen

For instance and I'm convinced that you got

Scud missiles in your blood vessels

One One launches

Memory is erased from your unconscious

Think of the days that your fears grew near

And you saw them coming at you in the rearview mirror

[Chorus]

[6.2]

I absorb my surroundings and recycle the chosen thoughts

Repackage the lessons for the old and decrepit
My broken-down system is immune to all insignificant Mentors and models from all of history's vast amount of mysteries
Inconceivable notion that the dead walk upright
And march alongside productive numbers in society
Slumbers thin applying the proper physics
To change imbalanced scales and relevant statistics Counterfeit cubans are smoked by vast amounts of sucker DJs
That don't count in the real world
The aura surrounding
Meanwhile the dub system pounding Soundtracks for apocalyptic progressive thoughts and infiltration
Dead men
Don't
Walk
Not even

"The armored personnel carrier....forward
M 132 [rumble]"

[Chorus]

[6.2] Dead

[Mos Def sample]:
"Ashes to ashes
And dust to dust" repeat to end
