Jody girl, Jody girl Spend your time today watchin clocks, spend the hours away
Jody girl, you know the world's goin' round all day
Thinkin' back to the things he used to say Didn't he put you on a pedestal when first you met?
Show us some honeymoon
So hard to forget Now what ever happened to that crazy boy with the lovelight in his eyes?
He used to bring you flowers every day
Now you sit here on a cloudy afternoon watchin a soap opera, soap opera on T.V.
Your old man's workin, and the kids are out playin'.
They're out playin' and little girl, you aint feelin' too free
You keep thinkin' back, thinkin' back to high school
Those high school days and all the wild wild good times you had
All the boyfriends, boyfriends knockin' at your door
Now Jody girl, Jody girl, you're spendin' your time today watchin clocks, spendin' the hours away
Jody girl, you know the world's goin round all day
thinkin' back to the things he used to say Well didn't he put you on a pedestal when first you met?
Show us some honeymoon
And whatever happened to that crazy boy with the lovelight in his eyes?
Whatever happened to that crazy boy?
