Hey there, what's happened to your life?
Have you checked the mirror lately?
Hey there, where do you spend your nights?
Has this city kept you safely?
Hey there, what's happened to your life?
You're waiting for someone to save you

You're on the edge
But it's not too late
To ask yourself
Where did I go wrong?
So where did you go wrong?

Hey there, what's happened to your life?
Is it self esteem you're missing?
Hey there, is everything all right?
Are your new friends gonna fix it?
Hey there, what's happened to your life?
This isn't what you planned or is it?

This city's never seemed so lonely
How will you find your way out?
This city's never seemed so cold and
How will you find your way out?
Hey there, why are you all alone?
I know these city lights are blinding
Hey there, don't you miss your home?
Well, it's not too late for you to find it.
