Well everybody tries
To keep themselves alive
You were younger yesterday
And feeling not so great

Well everybody cries
I think I'm beginning to find
I was younger yesterday
And I'm feeling not so great

Were laying down in bed
The days go by in my head
Well I'll fake it if I can't sleep
And together we cant get some relief

And now, you know, your beautiful you've always wondered
No, you know, everythings alright
And now, you know, your beautiful you've always wondered
Now you know, together were alright

We're marching left to right
I think it's little bit out of sight
Yeah I've always felt like this
And I think it's got alot to do with the sound
Of everybody's sighs
I think we agreed I ain't lying
But were standing up straight
Cause together we can make it great

Now we know, were beautiful we've always wondered
No we know, together were alright
Now we know, were beautiful we've always wondered
Now, we know, with everyday, everyday is a fight

You will make it right
You were misunderstood
The world wants
You to make it right
We were misunderstood

The world wants love

Love, love, love, love, love, love
