Here comes my go-go dancer

I called out but she wouldn't answer, oh, I don't know

She's changed ever since I met her

New friend but I won't forget her, can't let her go

I don't believe that's all she needs now

She used to have big dreams but somehow

They seem to mean less everyday

She wants to throw it all away

I love to watch you when you dance

Could you still feel that way?

Should we start a new romance?

I watched them walking home together

Even on their own she never talks much at all

I don't know what she sees in you, boy

I think you're just another new toy, walk then you crawl

I love to watch you when you dance

Could you still feel that way?

Should we start a new romance?

Here comes my go-go dancer

I called out but she wouldn't answer, oh, I don't know

She's changed ever since I met her

New friend, but I won't forget her, can't let her go

I don't believe that's all she needs now

She used to have big dreams but somehow

They seem to mean less everyday

She wants to throw it all away

I love to watch you when you dance
