It's not the way you look

Always feeling sad 'cause the people stare

It's just another game

You're feeling up

You're down back around again

Give me something to feel or take it all away

Well, sad eyes I'll cut another arm for you

Write it out in blood

They came for me and you

Sad eyes and you know they lie

And I know 'cause they burn for you, sad eyes

There's nothing you can do

It's sad eyes for

Your life is bound with chains

Moving under cover thoughts filled with despair

It's just another phase

Now you know I'm back

Back from the grave, man 'cause God don't care

It's just another craze

Sad eyes I'll get down on my knees for you

Sacrifice my life

The vultures feed for you
Sad eyes and you know they lie
And I know 'cause they burn for you, sad eyes
There's nothing you can do
It's sad eyes for
I can move the walls
Feel them in your mind closing down on you
I can make them go away
You're feeling up
You're down back around again
Everyone's so mean they'll never know you're mine
Sad eyes I'm the voice crying for you
Let me hear you scream
Let me feel your pain
Sad eyes and you know they lie
And I know 'cause they burn for you, sad eyes
There's nothing you can do
It's sad eyes for
