Oh by the way, just back away, she is nothing but trouble
Go far away, just run away, she is nothing but trouble

Feel content with your place well inside the human race
You were built as a fortress of the untamed spirit
Powered up, she breaks in, bomb is ticking from within
And your heart now is racing in the race you never win
So you get up and go, go to her and let her know that you have been waiting

Oh by the way, just back away, she is nothing but trouble
Go far away, just run away, she is nothing but trouble

Time has passed, not so good
Not the way you thought it would
A private hell, but you act so happy when you're with her
She picks your friends, picks your clothes
Tells you when and where to go
Ah, the gruesome surgery of love
And now you want back your life and you pray for just a quick goodbye

Oh by the way, just back away, she is nothing but trouble
Go far away, just run away, she is nothing but trouble

So it goes
Senses slow, start transmission
Back to a place, you erase in your mind
Where you can breathe, sighs relieved, where you are free

Oh by the way, just back away, she is nothing but trouble
Go far away, just run away, she is nothing but trouble
