"Ordinary Day"

bad dream
wake me when it's over it can't be my eyes refuse to focus this pain this pain i feel for you these tears these tears i shed for you this prayer this prayer i sing for you

god today is not an ordinary day wind it back and make it go away we'll pay for all our sins but not today not this way

can't reach your stuck inside my tv i'll break glass i'll reach and pull you out
