My heart - mister beat gave me such a surprise
Right out of the blue are on to you
Now my heart slumping fast
Jumping in the whole time
You walked out of my dreams and into my life

My heart searched the sky I wonder why
My heart slumping fast
Passing me by
My heart, I wonder how I wonder why
???

I must have been so alone
Solitary, still a stone
So lonely.
And if love is an island
I want to be on em close
Let lose, running free
And get away from here with you

My heart searched the sky I wonder why
My heart slumping fast
Passing me by
My heart, I wonder how I wonder why
???

Your face
Your face
Your face
Your face

I must have been so alone
Solitary, still a stone
So lonely.

You make me feel so alive
I scared being of me, I swear I've tried
I truly believe, there's nothing in the world
I wouldn't do for you.
You save me from myself

And I don't leave anything else

Your face

You make me feel so alive

Your face

I scared being of me, I swear I've tried

Your face

I truly believe

Your face

There's nothing in the world

I wouldn't do for you

Don't leave anything else
