Old Queen Cole, gotsta take control
You drinkin' whiskey and wine and it tastes just fine
For you now Nicki life is gettin' tricky
And you're runnin' outta gas drivin' way too fast

Full throttle in gear tryin' hard to steer you Toward immaculate conception, heavy metal perception
There's a world that's all around you and no one will ever find you
For you that's ok 'cause tomorrow's just another day

Rock, roll, butter, bread, remember what yo' mama said Hey it's just yo' life, why don't you find the biggest knife
You can find now baby yeah you actin' like a lady You got blood on your pants and I know that you can dance

Queen Cole Queen Cole, gotsta take control
You drinkin' whiskey and wine and it tastes just fine
For you now Nicki life is gettin' tricky
And you're runnin' outta gas drivin' way too fast
