Many colours in the homo rainbow
Don't be afraid to let your colors shine, shine
Many colours in the homo rainbow
Show me yours, I'm gonna show you mine, mine

If you find a pot of gold
Every little thing is gonna work out fine in the homo rainbow

Many colours in the homo rainbow
You give me shade from black to yellow
Many colours in the homo rainbow
A warm embrace and a kind-a hello

If you find your pot of gold Than every little thing is gonna work out fine in the homo rainbow

If you find a pot of gold
Than every little thing is gonna work out fine in the
homo rainbow

Every single colour, every walk of life (Ooh, in the homo rainbow)

In all shapes and sizes, gone every day and night From the golden shores of Kansas to the middle of Japan (Ooh, in the homo rainbow)

Reach around your soul and learn your fellow man (Ooh, in the homo rainbow)

There are many colours in the homo rainbow Do not be afraid to let your colours shine (Ooh, in the homo rainbow)

Don't be ashamed of what god made you (Ooh, in the homo rainbow)

(??? You can stop us, super 'cause that's where you fell out???) (Ooh, in the homo rainbow)

(Turn it up baby)

Chef: Now my friend Meat Loaf and I are gonna sing a little love song
