You're not surreal
Can't you tell?
Hippy smell

Said,
Hippy smell only
I can't tell, patchouli oil
Sixties hell
Said
You're not real
And
You're not surreal
Can't you tell?
Hippy smell

She's got the hippy smell, ladies and gentlemen
You can smell the patchouli oil on her breath She's got the Grateful Dead posters hanging up all over the place
She says: "I wish I'd have been alive in the 60s, cause those were really groovy times."
Well you know I got somethin' to tell ya, you wouldn't wanna be alive in the 60s
And you would've probably gotten your little hippy ass killed or something
You little shit-face, awwww

Hippy smell only
I can't tell, patchouli oil
Sixties hell
Said
You're not real
And
You're not surreal
Can't you tell?
Hippy smell
