I love to write the silliest of things anything any thing that time brings even draw people's funny faces this doesen't make my day anyless (chorus)

But one day i saw you walk by it changed my mood as if i were high i drew a picture of you and i never felt this feelin' never had anyone in my doodles that way yeah!!

(sec stanza)

Now i hate that you're in my mind you're the one person that i can't find the only person that i desire.You're my everything from water to fire.

(chorus)

But one day i saw you walk by
it changed my mood as if i were high i drew a picture of you and i never felt this feelin' never had anyone in my doodles that way (third stanza)

Sad to say you were with someone else and i hate you for it!my heart was broken but it took me minutes to realize that i was hit.

But i can't do any thing why i can't tell them that i am failing but there's nothing i can do but to write a doodle about you and your boy im sure he's one of your toys.

Idrew a picture of you.

(chorus)And one day i saw you walk by it changed my mood as if i we're high i will draw a picture of you and i will feel this feelin' and i will have you in my doodles again!!
