[Intro]

Uh yeah, Forgive me lord

Uh, Cmon, Yeah, Uh

Listen to me

[Verse]

This is the prayer of a hard weight heavy

I'm in a sea of depression, Please lord, Let my ship stay steady

Cause I ain't ready, To be devoured by the mouth of death

My cup of faith runs full, Now half-ounce's left

So I count my breaths and hold my own

Hopin satan ain't stole my throne

I know, All too well, What it's like to be young and poor

When everyday is as dark as the one before

And I just wanna be like you

Step out onto the surface of this water lord, And then run to shore

Would you meet me at the bank of the sea?

For a hug, Be as anxious as me?

I gotta know, Cause everyday is a fight to win

When you're surrounded by triflin men

Sometimes I feel I'm worth nothin more than just my mic and pen

I need you in my life again

Forgive me lord
