I come to you for salvation
Yeah, you're my only temptation
You give me strength to fight back the blues
You calm me with your sweet talking
You wake me from my sleepwalking
Your sugar kisses stick like tattoos
We live to win though were born to lose
Disconnected from the world
Disconnected from the world
Save our souls
There's panic out there in the streets
Me and you
Were like refugees
Disconnected from the world
Disconnected from the world
Our love is strong and outspoken
My promise will not be broken
I've got you deep beneath the skin
Were born to lose but we live to win
Were born to lose but we live to win
Disconnected from the world
Disconnected from the world
Save our souls
There's panic out there in the streets
Me and you
Were like refugees
Disconnected from the world
Save our souls
There's panic out there in the streets
Me and you
Were like refugees
Disconnected from the world
Separated from the world
Disconnected from the world
Save our souls
There's panic out there in the streets
Me and you
Were like refugees
Disconnected from the world
Save our souls
There's panic out there in the streets
Me and you

Were like refugees
Disconnected from the world
Separated from the world
Disconnected from the world
Disconnected from the world
