Smoking my last cigarette
The smoke dissolves in the air
All the secrets that we kept
Now I don't know if you care

Read the signs
Reading the signs
You've missed the point
You don't even know the point
There's lots of love, all around me
I just can't see, see it from here
I know it's out, out there somewhere
But I just can't feel, feel it in here

A love that's never growing cold
Can we do better than this?
A love that's never growing old
Does it even exist?

Read the signs
Reading the signs
You've missed the point
You don't even know the point
There's lots of love, all around me
I just can't see, see it from here
I know it's out, out there somewhere
But I just can't feel, feel it in here x2
