"Trouble Trouble"

Time to wake up, Mr. Blackout man
We got to get this show on the road
You got to bed two hours ago, in such a state
But hurry up we're late

Destination anarchy, with no grip on reality
Here we go now, no return, the trouble starts here.
We are trouble trouble, trouble trouble, oh ohhhh.
We're in trouble trouble, trouble trouble, oh ohhh.
Just say you'll never do it again, say you'll never do it again
But you're better than than, better than that
All that trouble, oh ohhh

Time to wake up, Mr. Blackout man
It's all about to get out of control
Kung foo sex moves, In the hotel room
Naked, flirting by the pool
Generation all gone wrong, the rebel nation's drinking song
Here we go now, no return, the trouble starts here,
We are trouble trouble, trouble trouble, oh ohhh
We're in trouble trouble, trouble trouble oh ohhh
You'll say you'll never do it again, say you'll never do it again
But you're better than that, better than that
All that trouble.
