I have brought you here tonight
To lay you out upon the stone
You're the girl that loves me best
Part the robe that hides your chest

Darlin' I think it's time that I let you know
I don't feel any guilt now that I touch your throat

You taught me how to sing my songs
What to drink and not to smoke
When to help and who to hate
All for love, you suffocate

Everybody wants a chance to feel all alone
Hangin' out here beside the old open road
Little one, you have done
All you could to keep me in your arms
But I watch as you choke on your tears

Suddenly I feel so strong
I don't hear a single sound
Lookin' up towards the stars
I can see for very far

Everybody wants a chance to feel all alone
Hangin' out here besides the old open road
Little one, you have done
All you could to keep me in your arms
But I watch as you choke on your tears

(solo)

Everybody wants a chance to feel all alone
Hangin' out here besides the old open road
Little one, you have done
All you could to keep me in your arms
But I watch as you choke on your tears
Everybody wants a chance to feel all alone
