Weakened knee joints, stomach floaters, shaken
elbows still demand
That I ask you for an answer to the question here at hand.

Why did he reach out to you just now?
Touch your hand and say goodbye?

You can hear him breathing heavy with a sound so physical.
With his blue jeans, he's bow-legged and he's stupid
like a bull.

Why did he reach out to you just now?
Touch your hand and say goodbye?

Why did he reach out to you just now?
Touch your hand and say goodbye?
How's the man supposed to stand up so tall?
When he feels that he could die?

Can you hear him?
Can you hear him?
Can you hear him?
Can you hear him?
Can you hear him?
Can you hear him?
