Well I drove by your house again
To see you near your window
But I guess that your not home

I saw his car out front today
Parked where I always used to
Asking how it feels knowing I will always be behind you

You will never ever forget me
You will never ever ever forget me

I'll call you up again tommorow
And we'll have that same old talk
How have you been is your drinking under control
How's you momma is she still insane
You made her crazy
You can't really blame her
Had she of seen that thing that we delt with
We where 18 years old

You will never ever forget me no no no no
You will never ever ever forget me
You will never ever forget me no no no no
You will never ever ever forget me

We made our mark
Declared our hearts
I've got you under my skin
When love is scars
Now in his arms
That's why I can't stop thinking

You will never ever forget me no no no no
You will never ever ever forget me
You will never ever ever forget me no no no no

You will never ever let me forget you no no no no
You will never forget me no no no no
You will never ever ever forget me
You will never ever forget me no no no no
You will never ever ever forget me

Forget me
Forget me.....
