"On The Edge"

Things are so complicated now, I think I'm gonna throw up my neck
I don't know what tomorrow brings, and either way I can't check

I go out to the movies I tell my girl she's groovy But no one ever seems to get satisfied
Things are so complicated now, I think I'm gonna curl up and die
One minute things are in my head, and not matter how I try

Can't seem to get sorted
My plans end up boarded
The days sink through my crotch hands like rain

There ain't no better way to ride
I've punched the devil in the eye
There ain't no better way to live, on the edge!

Things are odd doubled in knots, and I'm caught in the spite of shred
Only just a matter of time before he comes to eat up my head

So I better do now,
Fun time is all through now,
Give my blessings to those who came on

There ain't no better way to ride
I've punched the devil in the eye
There ain't no better way to live, on the edge!

There ain't no better way to ride
I've punched the devil in the eye
There ain't no better way to live, on the edge!

There ain't no better ways to fly
I've punched the devil in the eye
There ain't no better way to live, on the edge
On high...

On high...
