Translation:

An empire of the rap, we're a kingdom
from the Shin to the Bet we strip the nation
speakers of truth, preachers of moral blackmailers and forgetters of the past are we.

I'm a shark, yeh yeh I'm the king
In the service of the funk I open the door
so for a buck thirty take the funk to your home
Shin Bet Kus Samech for a small loan.
It's been 18 years for the funk's reign
Miro, Fuck A., MUK
Orange Murderers - we're no joke
An empire forever, we're a kingdom.

Chorus:

Shabak Samech is an empire (Imperia)
see all the girls in a hysteria
spreading (also undressing) like the Malaria
because Shabak Samech is an Empire.

When I stand there with a toothpick in my mouth
The girls come on all fours asking for it now
an apocalypse in their ass the size of a tree
no government will stop the WET force - we're free.
Because Yavne is the city I come from
in streets - we fuck in color
the chicks (yoh) are wet (yoh)
in Metula we're out of virgins (yoh)
it's the Shabak Samech if they opened up your ass
in Yavne - the city of lights.
