Hey listen, I know you've been warned not to talk to any strangers
I wouldn't tell you any lies, you're not in any kind of danger
You're new around here, you don't know all the roads
This town could be a graveyard, a graveyard for your hopes
When I saw you walking home last night / I picked you out to keep in my sight
I'm gonna be your guardian angel
Don't you read the papers, the streets aren't safe anymore
You see too many people, they're livin' outside the law
They say it's just another sign of these times
A dirty world breeding dirtier crime
I wanna be your guardian angel
No, don't run away, there's no cause for alarm
As long as i'm around here you won't come to any arm
I'll follow you right up to your door
No need for you to worry anymore
I'm gonna be your guardian angel (angel)
Your guardian angel (angel) x 2

No, don't run away, there's no cause for alarm
As long as i'm around here you won't come to any arm
I'll follow you right up to your door
No need for you to worry anymore
I'm gonna be your guardian angel (angel)
Your guardian angel (angel) x 2
Tell me something sister, are you afraid of the dark?
I always was when I was a kid
Shadows full of dynamite just waiting for a spark,
I thought i'd never get used to the secrets they hid
Now I feel at home in this twilight world, waching stories unfold in a dream
This is no place for a single girl, your voice could be just another scream
No, don't run away, there's no cause for alarm
As long as i'm around here you won't come to any arm
I'll follow you right up to your door
No need for you to worry anymore

I'm gonna be your guardian angel (angel)
Your guardian angel (angel) x 2
