Anytime you're feeling low
And you've got no place to go
Come ride the miles and I'll be there
To take away your worries, take away your cares
But you know, you know, you know I want you to want me.

Anytime you're feeling blue, you can see what I can do
Give me the chance to show you I care
And take away your sorrows, give a lot to share
'Cos you know, you know, you know I want you to want me.

Loving you is what I think of thru' the night and day
Wanting you is my obsession only you can show me the way.

Anytime you're feeling low
And you've got no place to go
Come ride the miles and I'll be there
To take away your worries, take away your cares
But you know, you know, you know I want you to want me.

(Instrumental Break)

Loving you is what I think of thru' the night and day
Wanting you is my obsession only you can show me the way.

Anytime you're feeling blue, you can see what I can do
Give me the chance to show you I care
And take away your sorrows, give a lot to share
'Cos you know, you know, you know I want you to want me

You know, you know I want you to want me
You know, you know I want you to want me
