Tell me that you understand
Takes more than a smile to be a friend
Love and honor and protect the soul
Keep it safe for years untold
Strength in the end is all you need

Catastrophic thoughts will mesmerize
Hate and rage will hypnotize
Everybody can groove at the same time
So open up your heart and free your mind
Shake off the chains, you know you can

Hugs ain't enough
Words ain't enough
Love ain't enough
Just ain't enough

Sometimes I feel that nothing is real when Crying ain't enough and lying ain't enough but Check all that stuff when nothing I say is Just enough 'cause it just ain't enough

Simple solutions will save the day
Rip and tear those cobwebs away
The heart is a muscle with a mind
So don't think you're wasting time
Wishing upon a star
No matter how near or far
Faith in yourself is all you need
I said, faith in yourself is all you need

Hugs ain't enough
Words ain't enough
Love ain't enough
Just ain't enough
