She means everything in this world to me.
I love to hear her laugh when she's on my knee.
My little girl's love is so pure, it brightens everything
I see; I can't believe she's a part of me.

Her smile to me is like the morning sun,
Leila Rose

She looks just like you they say as we walk on by.
I say that's my girl, but, she's got her mama's style.
Her baby talk is our lullaby. I can't believe I ask the Reasons why.

Her smile to me is like the morning sun, Leila Rose.

Smiling, laughing, loving
Leila Rose!

I look back on a time when she wasn't in our lives.
My love grew so strong for my wife. We extended our Hearts to the heavens above and down came this girl
Made from love.

Everyone who sees you wants to be a part of your life.
Just one touch of your hand, warms like sunlight.
Your bright shiny eyes reflect the sky. I can't believe I ask the Reasons why.

Your smile to me is like the morning sun, Leila Rose
