How did she fall in love?

Tired and shaken up

Could it be hanging around's enough?

No one was fooling when they told about the sense in sensitivity in moving on.

All that I see is that we live in life

Did you fail when you found that you paid the price?

Hope it wasn't lost in an honest truth

so, the past doesn't break all that we'd been through

Every little thing what you did was right

but, who knows what you did on that day you cried
endlessly

Oh you cried endlessly

Take a message from my love

What could I say to you?

Oh, when making the waves was left unconscious

I didn't mean to tell you why. oh why?

But you harbored all defenses

And you're making it hard to bring that hope back for you and I

All that I see is that we livin' life

Did you fail when you found that you paid the price?

Hope it wasn't lost in an honest truth

so the past doesn't break all that we'd been through

Every little thing what you did was right

endlessly

Oh you cried endlessly

Take a message from my love
