If I could stop an ocean
That's bleeding from the sky
And strip the sun of all it's glory
For a time away just us I would Shame the grey don't go away
Smothering everything
Trapped in the same schematic

Endless rain forever
Relentless
Endless rain forever
Always coming down
Endless rain forever
Saturating
Endless rain forever
Always coming down
Coming down

Then becomes the whitest
Freezing over of hell
And it's the moment of no return
Too cold to speak
Too cold to move

Endless rain forever
Relentless
Endless rain forever
Always coming down
Endless rain forever
Engulfing
Endless rain forever
Always coming down
Coming down

The icicles have reclaimed theirs
Smothering everything
Too cold to move
The icicles have reclaimed theirs
Smothering everything
Too cold to move
