A delirious boy longing for space travel
I wasn't special enough to get out of my head
But if my confusion borders on conniption
Well then damn me and shame me
Until I'm reformed to your mold

Feel the connection
Feeling all the love
Losing the connection
Losing touch

Chased by the ghost of my long looming memory
Won't let me shove all these stones off my chest
Not like I gave a shit when it all happened
Every time I'm reflecting
I'm haunted by what I've left behind

Feel the connection
Feeling all the love
Losing the connection
Losing touch
Gone is the connection
Gone is all the trust
Gave up on the friendship
Gave up on the love

I tried to claim some space
I tried to claim some space out here
I tried to claim some space out here
For someone but myself
