Better living through chemistry
Keep me fortified with steroids
Stimulate my life with amphetamine
Preserved in a layer of polycarbonate
For regulated mass consumption

Wrapped in cellophane
Suspended in sodium benzoate
Decrease the nature to increase the lifespan
And keep me alive with the potassium
Give me all of that potassium

Potassium chloride in the lethal injection
Please please let me feed upon you
Potassium chloride criminal genocide
And I would like a taste or two

I need to feed upon the diseased entrails
Plastic throats to fill the blackened lungs
Of which I breathe through just to speak to you
So keep me subsiding on that potassium
Wanting potassium
Suspend me in that state of cryogenics
Frozen in animation
Sustaining on that man made apparatus
Suspension in magnesium
And I need it flowing through my blood
Much more
Much more

Go buy death from the corner store
Go submit to death in the drive through
All you cancer stricken suicidal fuckers at the Burger
King
Fishing from a sulfur sea
Killing yourselves quicker than junkies
Go buy death at the grocery store
Go contract a fatal virus quicker than a whore

Potassium chloride in the lethal injection
Please please let me feed upon you

Potassium chloride criminal genocide
And I would like a taste or two

Keep me fed like Terry Schiavo
Only alive due to vegetative chemistry
So flood more in and shoot it up quicker
Fill me up I'm demanding more of that potassium
Potassium
Potassium
Potassium
