Transcending
Far less understanding
I'm above all these words
That define what is said to be

Transforming
Transforming into another state of...
Powers that be well they're powerless
Names we've been given hold no importance

Perception
The ultimate deception
Hostage to a character
Comprising our personalities

Transforming
Transforming into another state of being
Powers that be well they're powerless
Names we've been given hold no importance

When these conflicting contradictions arise
I'm not sure what to believe is real
The line that divides imagination and aspiration
Meaningless

I slept a slave to greedy desire
Ego's death grip on my throat
I awoke to the bright of reality
I am
I am
I am

Powers that be well they're powerless
Names we've been given hold no importance

When these conflicting contradictions arise
I'm not sure what to believe is real
The line that divides imagination and aspiration
Meaningless
When these conflicting contradictions arise
I'm not sure what to believe is real

The line that divides imagination and aspiration
Meaningless
