Late at night I lie awake in bed
Think about all the things you said
I'm so confused, I don't know what to do
You're on my mind, make this dream come true

I'm wasting time
You could be mine
I can't take this pain any more
Baby, your pleasure, I just gotta know

If I could only spend a moment with you
That meant, we have a chance to kiss tonight
I can't see calling for nobody but you

I feel the rush inside me when I'm with you
And when you lie beside me
I can't see falling for nobody but you

Now maybe this, I quietly slip away
Or better yet, maybe, I should stay
I'm so confused, I'm running out of time
If I were free, I know that you would be mine

I can't explain, this is insane
He's here, next to me
Oh baby, can't you see?
This is your true lover factor, say yeah

If I could only spend a moment with you
That meant, we have a chance to kiss tonight
I can't see falling for nobody but you

I feel the rush inside me when I'm with you
And when you lie beside me
I can't see falling for nobody but you

Please take me out of this nightmare
I have a right to be free
I need the heat of your passion
Give me a taste of ecstasy

No one can love me like you do, baby

You got me burning for nobody but you
Nobody else could satisfy me
I feel the rush inside me when I'm with you

I feel the rush inside me when I'm with you
And when you lie beside me
I can't see falling for nobody but you
