Sounds like a boring day since you've been gone
I never knew the nights could be so long
Are you on your way to someone new?
Come on home, baby, true love so true

Keep on wonderin'
Baby, where you've been, where you've been
Keep on wonderin'
Will I see you again, see you again

Don't know what you got until it's gone
It's not the same when I'm in someone else's arms
I'll let you go if you need to be free
Always thought that you and I were meant to be

Keeps me wonderin'
If I see you again, see you again
Keep on wonderin'
Baby, where you've been, where you've been

Where you've been, baby, I just have to know the answer
Oh, I keep on torturing myself, oh, I just don't know Where you've been hiding, I'm just hanging on your doorstep
I don't need nobody's no one else

Wonderin', where you've been
I keep wonderin' where you've been Just can't help it, I keep wonderin'

I keep on, I just keep on wonderin' where you've been Every night and every day, if I see you again Wonderin', baby tell me where, where you've been
And tell me will I ever see your face again

Wonderin', where you've been
Wonderin', where you've been
I keep on, I just keep on wonderin' where you've been
