In your life you've done many things not everyone of them was as you'd have it seen today a sight, a scent, a sound, brought you back like the chorus of a song long since forgotten still it plagues your mind and you hear it just the same today the sight, the scent, the sound that brought you back
was your own reflection, your own reflection and i am your reflection, look at yourself have faith in what you see i am your reflection, look in the mirror but you're lookin at me no.

In your life have you done anything that any one of them had helped the world to be today a sight, a scent, a sound, brought you back
still it plagues your mind and you hear it just the same
today the sight, the scent, the sound that brought you
was your own reflection, not your reflection
and i am your reflection, look into your eyes tell me what you see
i am your reflection,
look into the mirror but can you ever see?
no.

In your life didn't do anything that anyone of them had made the world to be today a sight, a scent, a sound, brought you back
still it plagues your mind and you hear it just the same
today the sight, the scent, the sound that brought you
was your own reflection, not your reflection
and i am your reflection, look at your life tell me what you see i am that reflection, look in the mirror but you'll never see
no.

you can't ever see me.
no.
