Lets start, from the beginning (nail her), and we'll do all we can the end is coming closer (failure), tho we fight it all we can Death has come to visit and she's taking her time she says she wants to stay here and the pleasures all mine
Pain - has lost its meaning - pleasure Hate - it has no meaning - love her

So near we are to laughter (craving) when the crying fades away
How far emotions measure (raving) that the preachers dont pray
Life is nearly over and i'm waiting my turn She has me take a number now i'm waiting to burn Rain - will fall forever - please her Fate - has to wait its turn - love her how dear you are to mother (what's this) is she missing you now what fear instilled by master (mistress) did she whip you and how born incognito they all know who i am she would be the first one to be the one to damn Caine - no longer my name - pleaser Wait - to give her the same - love her

I've bled the last drop of blood from my veins I still must give you something tho i'm feeling a bit drained i'm waiting in the moonlight in the rain i will make this last forever if i can feel the pain Masterppiece almost finished tho its stained though the effort took forever art must be sus-stained
