We can make believe
That everything makes sense
There's no need to worry now
Coz' you're not like all the rest

Living with only your heart
A new day rise & its only the start
Something already here
The sky's opened up
And its perfectly clear

*It's all waiting for you
You can take the world
And give it your own name
It's all been waiting for you
No matter what you find
You will never be the same

Smile for the picture man dear
Its another day, another dream, another new year
And who knows what you'll find
But it's all comin' round
All in good time

Repeat *

When you're standing alone
Facing the darkness
I did know (I did know)
I know your light will never fade away.

Repeat *

It's all waiting for you
Like flowers in the spring
The world is open wide
It's all been waiting for you
With the spirit that you bring
You will always be the one to shine

...In good time
