i'm an oyster i am dying
i am born i am a pearl
i am great potential, a small matter
a fool entering the world i am raising a rabble i am hiding in the crowd i am here to make a noise i am afraid it will be too loud i could die here on the fence calling curiosity sin i can decide i do not play or decide i do not have to win i am fighting with my eyes closed when i'm fighting at all the fool afraid to leap for joy cause those that leap can fall
