Chorus:

I am always under your pillow we are never far apart I am always here beside you in the pathway of the heart Your life may go your way, my life may go mine but where you go in your sleep
I am never far behind.
Call me sentimental call me same time next year
I am always under your pillow spinning dreams in your ear.

I can hold you close from very far away
there is love year to year and love day to day and nothing I regret so long as the light doesn't fade my favorite stories have the kiss on the very last page (Chorus)

So wrap yourself up tight put a candle by your bed Be the fire in your belly I'll be the fire by your head Reach out in the dark I am the blanket and the sheet what holds up your head and warms up your feet
