I miss my friends on the east coast
They gave me strength when life was tough
I fell in love on the east coast
But she left me in a rut

I had to move from the east coast
When the money didn't come
I left my heart on the east coast
In a bed where my lover sleeps with another man

Consider it nothing
Consider it read
Consider me someone that you use to love
Don't consider me dead
I'll be thinking all by myself
And I need to get back to the east coast

Build me a house on the east coast
So I can start again with her
Buy back my soul on the east coast
Cause somebody stole it then they sold it
And I was left a fool
With nothing but a heavy head

Consider me some that you use to love
Don't consider me dead
I'm hopeless all by myself
And I need to get back to the east coast
