It's a blast up in the universe dreaming
I hope it last
I'm addicted to this feeling

And im never coming down
I'm so high i'll never touch the ground
And if i do i'll die before i'm found

Up here is the way the world looks just right
Reminds me of the way the world looks at midnight

It's a blast up in the universe dreaming
I hope it last
I'm addicted to this feeling

And im never coming down
I'm so high i'll never touch the ground
And if i do i'll die before i'm found

Up here is the way the world looks just right
And up here i see the world spinning out of time

Drift away, i drift away and fill the sorrow, drift away

Up here is the way the world looks just right
And up here i see the world spinning out of time
