Speaking:(man) Lisa Mae, come back... Lisa Mae?

Singing: The first time I saw you

You were flirting with a girl

And as I got to know you

I loved you with all my heart

And its not my fault

That I fell for you

And its not my fault

That I kissed your lips cause

I meant it then

And I would mean it now

If you could tell me the truth

CHORUS: And I can't wait to see the day

When you go up to the alter with Lisa Mae

And to her you expose your true feelings

Expose your true feelings, Go on and expose your true feelings

I know that I love you

And always will

But if you just don't say

I'll never know how you feel

And it's not my fault

The day that I left you behind

And it's not my fault

That your in misery and pain cause

You never opened up

To tell me the truth

And now I blame you

CHORUS

BRIDGE: Why did you hurt me for so long?

Why did you do, what you put me through?

I'd love to love you again

But you gotta take the time

Gotta take the time,

Gotta, gotta,

Gotta, gotta take the time.

What's been wrong

What have we been thinking

All along

We were just imagining

But its not my fault

That it all ended

And its simply not my fault

That it didn't last that long

But I still love you

Like I always did

And it would've worked

If you'd just opened up

Go on and open up.....

CHORUS 2x

And I can't wait to see the day

When you expose you true feelings
