I've been waiting for you
To just come home,
I've been hopin' that the call would arrive

Cause it just ain't the same
When you're away
But baby girl it's just a matter of time

When you're miles away and I'm missing your face
I write you songs, it helps to keep me alive

Cause it just ain't the same
When you're away
But baby girl it's just a matter of time

There ain't no reason, not to believe in
The thing we call love, it's as easy as 1, 2, 3

I can't stop myself from trying to explain
That distance doesn't mean a thing

**chorus**

Would it even matter if we lived on different planets?
No.

I'd steal a rocketship and teach myself to land it, so

I'd never have to be away from you again
We'd be happy til the end
We could point and laugh at all our friends

Would it even matter if they said I couldn't have you?
No.

I'd burn the castle down, come just in time to grab you,
Oh

Everything would be as perfect as could be
It would be just you and me, and we'd both live on so happily

No one could change how I feel about you
Or things I would do for you *end chorus*

I've been waiting for days,

and I can't wait no more
I've gotta see the girl
That I've been waiting for

Cause it just ain't the same
When you're away
But baby girl it's just a matter of time

I've been waiting for days,
and I can't wait no more
The moment that I saw you,
Ya, my heart hit the floor
I haven't been the same,
Since you met me, and baby girl
To me, that's just fine

There ain't no reason, not to believe in
The thing we call love, it's as easy as 1, 2, 3

I can't stop myself from trying to explain
That distance doesn't mean a thing
