Tell them all the truth
but no secret lies this time, Once upon a world way before your loss,

So look out I fear
that they follow near,
And in the courthouse judge Kevin sentenced rope to neck,

They don't hear
The serpent that burns your ear....
Baby look out!

Leaving well enough alone is no choice of yours to make,
Guilty says the proof this town has no room for you,

So look out I fear
that they follow near,
For from the gallows you'll swing for all the kids to see,

They don't hear
the serpent that burns your ear,
Or the coward that sits alone in your head with itch....
Baby Look out!

Cause I'm so sorry that you could ever,
I'm so sorry for you, you'll never love again.
