Once upon a time, a drug dealer was arrested for selling dope
He was charged with selling cannabis
He was beaten to a pulp before being whisked away to jail

He goes to prison
He goes to prison
He goes to prison
He goes to prison

When John Cook went to court, he was arraigned
He was also prosecuted Evidence showed that he was caught selling crack on the street

He goes to prison
He goes to prison
He goes to prison
He goes to prison

John Cook was found guilty of possession of cannabis
The sentencing date was set
He received three years in prison

He goes to prison
He goes to prison
He goes to prison
He goes to prison

Pontiac, we build excitement
