Redeemer. I have seen your fate
Through fiction and relapse
The final curtains will fall
And there it rises up from the ground
Gazing upon the skies
Monolithic in temptation

I have seen war machines
Deathless in my dreams
The undercurrent
This great cold distance

I am deathless in my dreams
Crawling trough endless bloodstreams
Howling at the skies
Now disintegrating, senses wide awake

The serpent tower
No serenity has fallen
The serpent tower
Upon this land
Redeemer. I have seen your fate
Trough fiction and relapse
The final curtains will fall
And there it rises up from the ground
Gazing toward the skies
Monolithic in temptation
Flashing street lights
Why am I here?

I am deathless in my dreams
Crawling trough endless bloodstreams
Howling at the skies
Now disintegrating, senses wide awake

The serpent tower
No serenity has fallen
The serpent tower
Upon this lands
