"You've Had It"

Where have you got to lately
Where are you going to be
And I thought about it yesterday now baby
It's in my cuts now baby
As deep as yours
And the scars from this are gonna last for ever
And ever

You've had it
What you're getting from me
You've had it
Now what's it going to be
You've had it
What you're getting from me
But all I wanna do is be with you

Now that you've got me baby
You're just as sharp as me
And I'm glad you've cut me off
Writing my lies on the back of your hand
Tearing me up and watching you land
Sitting your heart on the sofa with me
