Falling, down again,
I think I see your eyes again
Walkin', to a light,
Knowing your not here tonight

I'm falling, false alarm,
I thought i had you in my arms
I'm falling down again,
Falling down again

Falling, slow but sure,
The truth can be so hard to cure
Lying to my heart,
Every night we spend apart

I'm falling, it hurts so much,
I thought i felt your tender touch
I'm falling down again,
I'm falling down

Never gonna hold you close again
Never find a new way to begin
Never gonna feel the gentle life upon the tears upon my

skin
Never gonna dream on where you are
Never gonna wish upon your star
Never gonna think about the way you made me fall

Falling, little one,
Flying too close to the sun
I'm trying, I can't forget,
Memories of the way we met

I'm falling, torn apart,
Wish I didn't have a heart
That's falling down again,
I'm falling down

Never gonna hold you close again

Never find a new way to begin
Never gonna feel the gentle life upon the tears upon
my

Never gonna dream on where you are
Never gonna wish upon your star
Never gonna think about the way you made me fall

Someday I may find another rainbow
Someday I may find a way not to fall...
I'm falling down again,
I'm falling down

Never gonna hold you close again
Never find a new way to begin
Never gonna feel the gentle life upon the tears upon
my

Never gonna dream on where you are
Never gonna wish upon your star
Never gonna think about the way you made me fall

Never gonna hold you close again
Never find a new way to begin
Never gonna feel the gentle life upon the tears upon
my

Never gonna dream on where you are
Never gonna wish upon your star
Never gonna think about the way you made me fall
