I live a perfect lie
All I ever want lies forgiven
Took away all those chains
And said

Do you lead a better life
Even when the sweet turns to bitter
Took away all of our chains
And said
They broke away, they broke away

Walking round outer space
Knowing that you've has a taste
Walking round out of place
And knowing what you're going to do
To break down those chains
I can't tell you
Took away all of our chains
And said broke away, they broke away

Got away with my ambition
Only if I want
Only if I don't
Took away all those chains
And said
Broke away, they broke away

Walking round out of place
Knowing that you've had a taste
Walking round out of place
Nothing what your going to do
To break out on me
I can't tell you
Took away, all of your chains
And said
They broke away, they broke away

And knowing what you're going to do
To break down those chains
I can't tell you
Take away all of those chains
And say

They broke away, they broke away
