Suddenly, you get a crazy feeling
Then in harmony and I won't be trading places
Now you're history, forget the time I let you play
Your mystery an' I don't know

Happy from the start
Then ripped and torn apart
Looking for a place within your heart
Cold, cold heart

Not like the stars that shine so bright
Cold, cold heart of mine
Don't you remember?
Cold, cold heart of mine

Close to me, taking out the boy in me
Your chemistry frightens all the life from me
Your honesty sometimes ain't so good
For your mystery an' I don't know

Happy from the start
Then ripped and torn apart
Looking for a place within your heart
Cold, cold heart

Not like the stars that shine so bright
Cold, cold heart of mine
Don't you remember?
Cold, cold heart
Cold, cold heart of mine

Love's for nothing but you try to get much more
Looking for something you never had before
The words left unspoken, just walked right out the door
For evermore, for evermore

The magic that love brings
The magic, ooh
That lights the stars so bright
So, so bright

Yeah, gonna tell the world I love her

Gonna tell the world I love her
Cold, cold heart of mine

Don't you remember?
Cold, cold heart
Shine so bright
Cold, cold heart of mine

Don't you remember
Cold, cold heart, yeah
